DEDICATION

The 1966 "RAINBOW" is dedicated to our College President, Rev. J. H. Quiring, who has faithfully served the college as teacher for eleven years (1945-55, 1962) and as president for the past three years (1963-66). His unfailing interest in our students, our school, and our Brotherhood has won the deepest respect and gratitude of all. May our lives prove that his undaunted efforts were an investment in Christ's kingdom that is inestimable here on earth.

THE MENNONITE BRETHREN BIBLE COLLEGE

The actual beginnings of M.B.B.C. go back to 1943. During that year a recommendation was offered to the annual Convention of the Canadian Conference of Mennonite Brethren Churches, which convened in Coaldale, Alberta, that called for definite action in respect to the founding of a Bible College in Canada. In 1944, the annual Convention voted in favour of the recommendation that a suitable building be purchased in the city of Winnipeg. The first year of a Bible College curriculum was offered at the Pniel Bible School at Winkler, Man., during the 1943-44 school year, but on October 19, 1944, the Mennonite Brethren Bible College (at its present site) officially opened its doors to a group of students.

The instructors who comprised the initial faculty of the College were the Rev. J. Friesen, the Rev. A. J. Voth, Mr. Ben Horsch, Mrs. Esther Horsch, and the Rev. A. H. Unruh. In 1945, the Rev. John B. Toews succeeded the Rev. A. H. Unruh as the school's second President.

The first issue of the RAINBOW, put out in 1946, presented the interesting story of the collective life and labours of some 74 students. Since then, the student body has grown steadily, with relatively little fluctuation in number; presently (the first semester of 1965-66), the total enrollment of day students is 163, while ten full-time instructors and two part-time instructors are involved in the teaching program of the College.

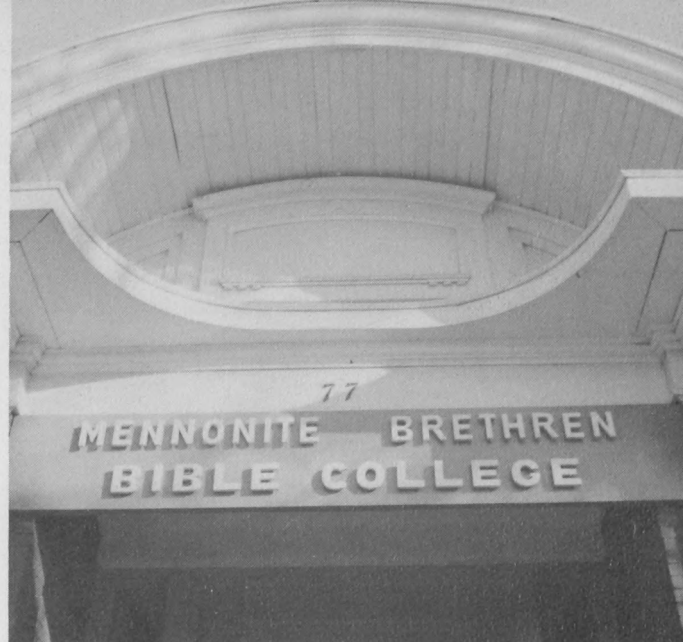

A comprehensive and up-to-date survey of the present distribution and areas of service of Alumni members is not available, but data contained in a College publicity folder for 1961 does supply the following information (for the period covering the years from 1944 to 1961):

In missionary service	106
In preaching and pastoral ministries	102
In the teaching profession	241
In music ministries	51

In 1950, M.B.B.C. was officially recognized as a full member by the Accrediting Association of Bible Colleges. In 1961, the College entered into an official agreement with Waterloo Lutheran University of Waterloo, Ontario, and since then arts courses, though still an integral part of the Bible College program, have been offered under the general supervision of this University and are part of the arts program leading to a Bachelor's degree at Waterloo Lutheran University.

M.B.B.C. is controlled by a Board of Governors representing the Canadian Conference of Mennonite Brethren Churches. Its members are elected annually, and a certain budgetary sum is granted by the Conference for operating expenses. This annual appropriation is supplemented during the year by offerings and gifts received from the many churches of our constituency. The gifts and goodwill of individuals, also, within our constituency are especially appreciated. May the number of such kind individuals increase from year to year!

Librarian.

Mr. Martens joined the M.B.B.C. faculty in 1957 and has been instructing voice, choir, and conducting for the past nine years. Besides this, he has conducted several tours with the A Cappella Choir, and has fostered the advancement of better music in the Mennonite Communities, with projects such as the Oratorio Programs. As he leaves for Detmold, Germany, we wish to convey to him our best regards, and God's nearest presence.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

MISS MARJORIE WIENS

For the past four years, Miss Wiens has served the college as piano instructor; her demand for excellence has produced a number of outstanding pianists. We wish her success, enjoyment, and God's goodness as she leaves our campus to continue work in the music field.

MR. J. J. TOEWS

As instructor, Mr. Toews has majored in the areas of Evangelism, Missions, and Sociology. He joined the faculty of our college in 1959; and during the coming year, 1966-67, he plans to further his studies in the field of Evangelism and Missions. His vital concern for the student body has been encouraging, and has been sensed by everyone. We thank you for this concern and pray that you may, during the coming year, experience God's grace and strength.

MR. VICTOR ADRIAN

Mr. Adrian has been professor at the Bible College from 1962-1966, instructing primarily in the areas of Biblical Theology and Church History. We want to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Adrian publicly for his stimulating lectures, and for the exciting discussions which were prompted by his deep involvement in his courses. In the spring of 1967 Mr. Adrian plans to take a leave of absence to study Historical and Biblical Theology at the "Lutheran Concordia Theological Seminary", St. Louis, Missouri.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The 1966 Yearbook marks time. It reminds us that the loom of life never stops; that time does not wait. "Time's horses gallop down the lessening hill." While we may linger in indifference and indecision, engage in purposeless activity, pursue passing pleasures or indulge in useless self-pity, time hurries on with a resistless, unrelenting stream, steadily reducing our chance of living the most useful life.

Life at best is very brief. There is not a single moment in life we can afford to lose. We must make use of time and improve our opportunities. Yesterday cannot be recalled; tomorrow cannot be assured; only today is ours. If we procrastinate, it will be lost. Let us therefore realize the true value of time and snatch, seize and enjoy every moment of it. Let us permit no idleness, no procrastination to increase our chance of future misfortune.

Our Christian schools and colleges present a persistent challenge to our youth to buy up the golden opportunities to prepare for a life of increasing usefulness that will lead to greater satisfaction.

"My Symphony"

To live content with small means; to seek elegance rather than luxury, and refinement rather than fashion; to be worthy, not respectable, and wealthy, not rich; to study hard, think quietly, talk gently, act frankly; to listen to stars and birds, to babes and sages, with open heart; to bear all cheerfully, do all bravely, await occasions, hurry never. In a word, to let the spiritual, unbidden and unconscious, grow up through the common. This is to be my symphony.

Graduates' Testimony

Our College experience has convinced us that we have been redeemed to 'become'. Our story here was a 'becoming' by God's grace, and our leaving shall be a 'becoming' for God's glory. We express our gratitude to all those who influenced us in our 'becoming'. Our prayer is to God in heaven that He may grant us to 'become' something to the praise of His glory.

ELMER ANDRES B.D.

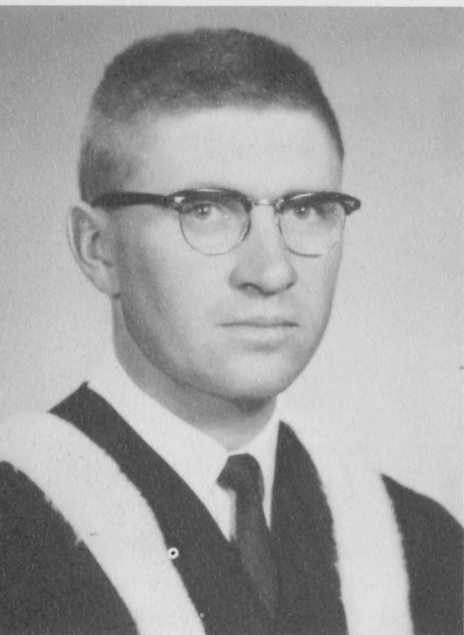

For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, "I will live in them and move among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore come out from them, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch nothing unclean; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be my sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty."

Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, and make holiness perfect in the fear of God. II Corinthians 6:16-7:1.

ELDON DeFEHR Th.B.

"The blessing of the Lord, it maketh rich, and He addeth no sorrow with it." Proverbs. A debt of love I owe to Jesus, He paid the debt my soul could never pay; Now at his cross I bow in adoration, And yield my all forever to His sway.

JACOB BALZER B.R.E.

"But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God." Acts 20:24.

HELMUT DOERKSEN Th.B.

Lord in my plight let me no longer be content to take my bearings from the light at my own masthead. Help me to live by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.

ALBERT DEFEHR B.R.E.

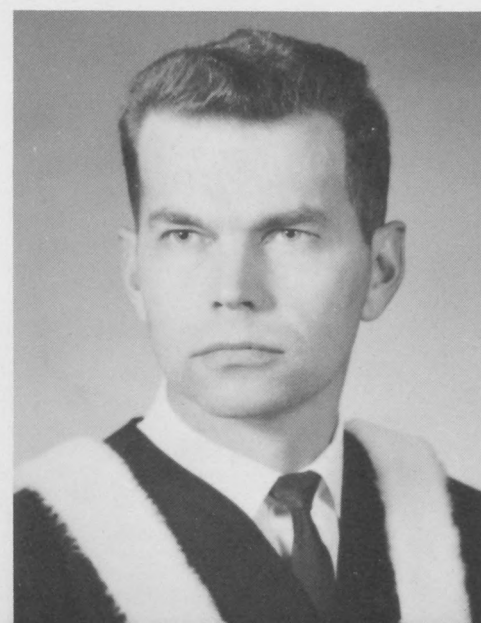

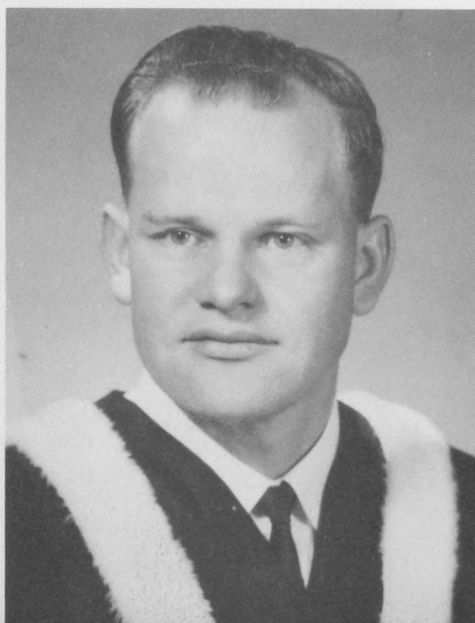

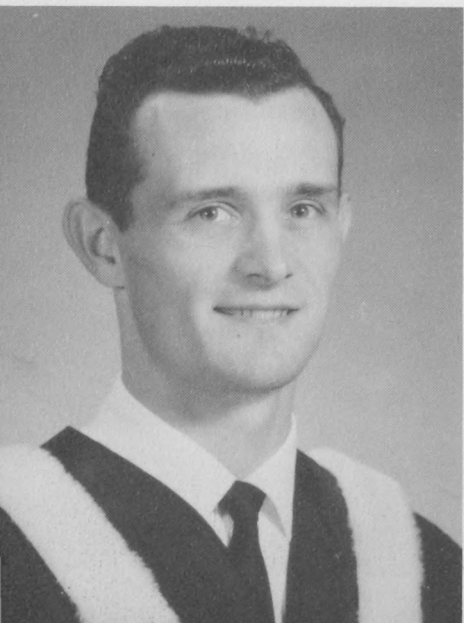

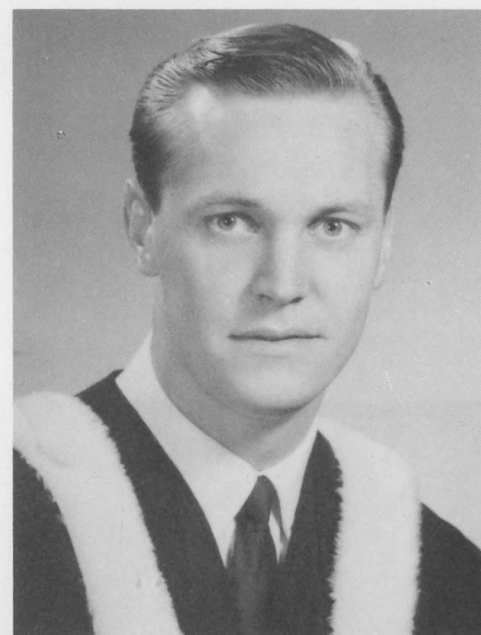

O Saviour, as thou hang'st upon the tree; I turne my backe to thee, but to receive Corrections, till thy mercies bid thee leave. O thinke mee worth thine anger, punish mee, Burne off my rusts, and my deformity, Restore thine Image, so much, by thy grace, That thou may'st know mee and I'll turne my face.

"Teach me to do thy will (and) lead me." Psalm 143:10

Like a shepherd, tender, true,

Daily finds us pastures new,
Jesus leads, Jesus leads;
If thick mists are o'er the way,
Or the flock 'mid danger feeds,
He will watch them lest they stray,
Jesus leads, Jesus leads.

'O rejoice, ye Christians loudly,
For our joy has now begun;
Wondrous things our God hath done;
Tell abroad His goodness proudly
Who our race hath honored thus
That He deigns to dwell with us.
Joy, O joy, beyond all gladness!
Christ hath done away with sadness!
Hence, all sorrow and repining,
For the Sun of grace is shining!

RITA SUDERMAN B.R.E.

If thou but suffer God to guide thee
And hope in Him through all thy ways
He'll give the strength, whate'er betide thee
And bear thee through the evil days
Who trusts in God's unchanging love
Builds on a rock that naught can move.

JOYCE SCHIMPKY B.R.E.

BRUNO TOEWS Th.B.

Let me be strong, dear Lord, let me not dread
The road that Thou hast willed my feet to

Let me not falter, teach me to be true,
Let me do all Thou hast for me to do! Anon.

Studies are said to be the main thing in College life. Classes begin at 8:30 a.m. with the same people enjoying the cool air and brisk walk to class, and the same people running to catch up. The doors of the old, red brick administration building, where nearly all classes are taught, swing open and closed many times, even after the bell, until the only sounds to be heard in the hall are a blending of a few voices — rising in one room, falling in another, dramatic, amused, and concerned.

But even in the Unruh building one can hear a class in session, and in the music lecture room hear a Chopin Nocturne at 8:30 in the morning. For that matter, you may hear someone courageously beginning a voice lesson, or doggedly practicing for one in one of the eight practice rooms.

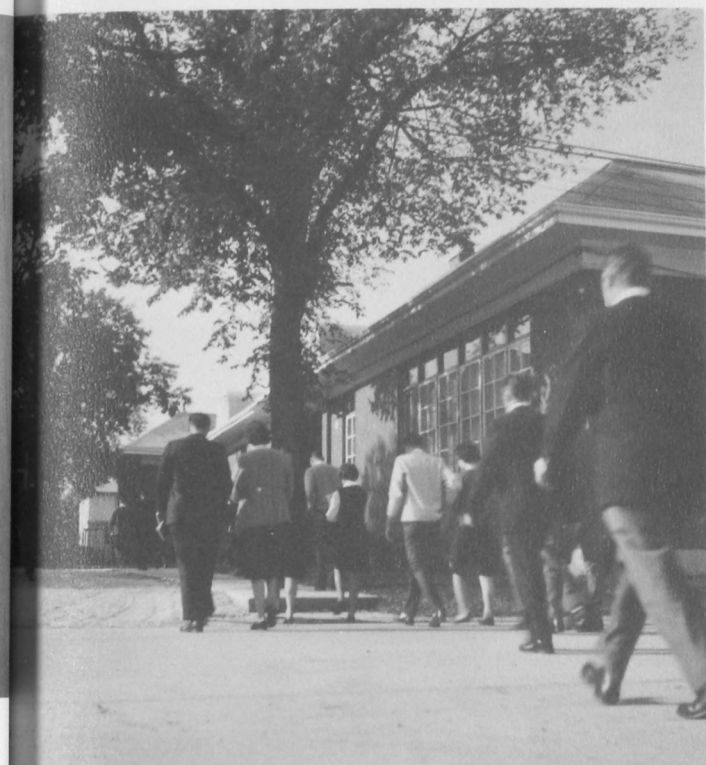

In the library the lights have been turned on by the early birds and will shine on open books, except during supper, until 10:30 p.m., when the studious stragglers are gently urged out of the building.

The library contains approximately 12,500 books. All students aid the librarian, Mr. Giesbrecht and his secretary in checking out and returning books; stacking is done as gratis work by a few students.

To chapel —

— and back to class

But, the lull between 9:30 and 10:00 a.m. is indispensable. It is a marvelous "plus even, if not especially, to religious studies, that that moments of worship may be experienced together with the rest of the student body. Faculty members, visiting missionaries, pastors, teachers, etc., guide our thoughts to an attitude of listening and a service of praise.

Other special times of spiritual growth were lectures such as the yearly Conrad Grebel Lectures. The topic of the lectures delivered this year, by J. C. Wenger, was God's Word Written. Especially valuable for us was the Deeper Life Emphasis week, conducted in November by our professor Rev. J. J. Toews. The Annual Missionary Conference arranged by the Missions Committee took place February 11-13. "Total Involvement," was the motto for the eight meetings and the eight guest speakers were: Dr. Eugene Nida, Mr. Ernest Friesen, Mr. Victor Adrian, Mr. Alvin Voth, Mr. P. J. Funk and Mr. A. A. Dyck. The introductory meeting included a singing group in foreign dress and an excellent monologue, written by Mr. A. Voth and delivered by Victor Loewen.

In the library displays of the Mennonite Brethren Mission Fields opened up discussions.

Throughout the year, the Missions Committee also sponsored our bi-monthly prayer meetings for specific mission fields. We enjoyed learning about the field we had chosen to be our concern, and corresponding with missionaries. One group also exchanged tapes with the Dan Nikkels in India.

The Christian Service programme was organized with the intent of giving all students a chance to put their Christian experience into practice.

The duties were varied, and each could be rewarding one week, and something of a chore the next. We were involved in Boys Brigade, and Pioneer Girls, Sunday School, Hobby Club; in directing choirs, speaking at Union Gospel, or singing in groups at the hospital or Salvation Army.

Singing was one of the best avenues of Christian Service or representing the college in deputation to outlying churches. Music played an important role in all of our chapel services. Often working behind the scenes, but making themselves heard the music committee organized this area of service. They presented recitals by music students; by music grads — Alvin Reimer, Ingrid Sawatzky and Henry Peters, Peter Braun and Janet Pauls; by guest artists Garth Beckett, Joyce Redekopp Penner and Peter Koslowsky.

The Oratorio choir which met every Monday under the direction of Mr. Martens, had the unusual privilege of working together with the choir of C.M.B.C. and their director Mr. George Wiebe, on Bach's Christmas Oratorio.

The performance was on December 12 in the Civic Auditorium with a choir of 350 voices conducted by Mr. George Wiebe, an orchestra, and soloists David and Viola Falk, Ingrid Sawatzky, and Victor Martens.

Practices in the second term dealt with smaller works such as Haydn's Te Deum, and culminated in a programme in the Portage Ave. Church on March 20.

A Cappella Choir

The 38-voice A Cappella Choir felt themselves very fortunate this year in being able to visit the B.C. churches, January 27 to February 6. Together with Mr. Martens, and the speaker Mr. J. Quiring, the busload left on a Thursday and arrived Friday in time to give two concerts. This hectic pace was kept up with practices and performances in churches, as well as the two Universities, several schools, as well as a conductors' conference.

But the excellent food and accommodations provided by all the churches, and the beautiful weather so different from Manitoba's, kept them in high spirits.

The hours of preparation were rewarded by the appreciation which was expressed by the listeners. In fact, the singers themselves, with each performance, recognized more fully the spiritual meaning of the music on their program.

Later in the year the choir also recorded two programs of religious music for the CBC, and performed in most of the Winnipeg churches.

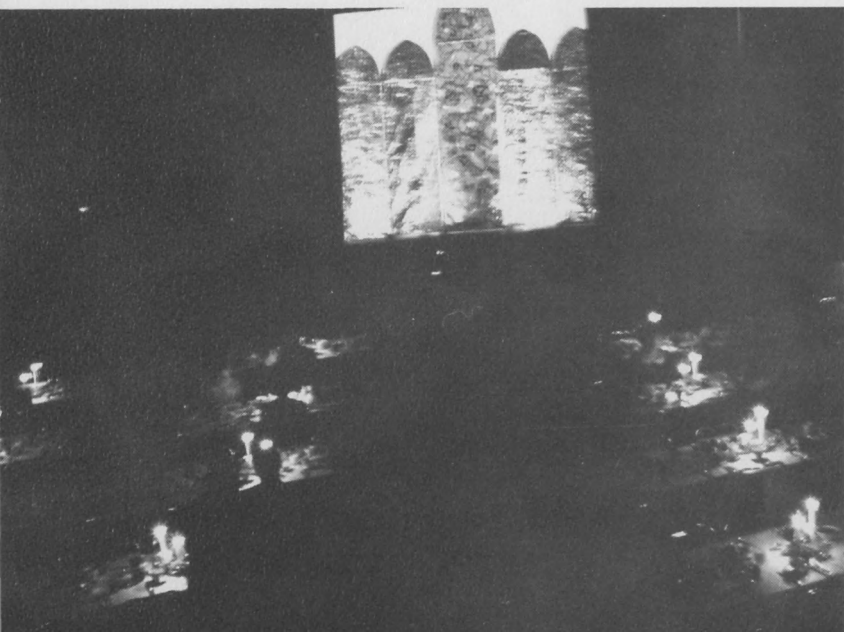

Perhaps somewhat less developed or possibly less employed are the literary talents in the College. Besides The Voice, published by the faculty, the literary committee this year published several high quality issues of the Companion.

Literary Committee: standing — Helen Wiebe, Carol Rempel, Helen Doerksen, Magdalene Friesen, Karin Neufeld. Seated — Eleanor Ewert, Bob Reimer, (chairman), Lottie Janzen, Walter Toews, Anita Dyck.

Generally the Recreation Committee is in charge of socials. They arranged the Get-acquainted Party, remembered mostly for its "professor's nail-driving contest" and skits.

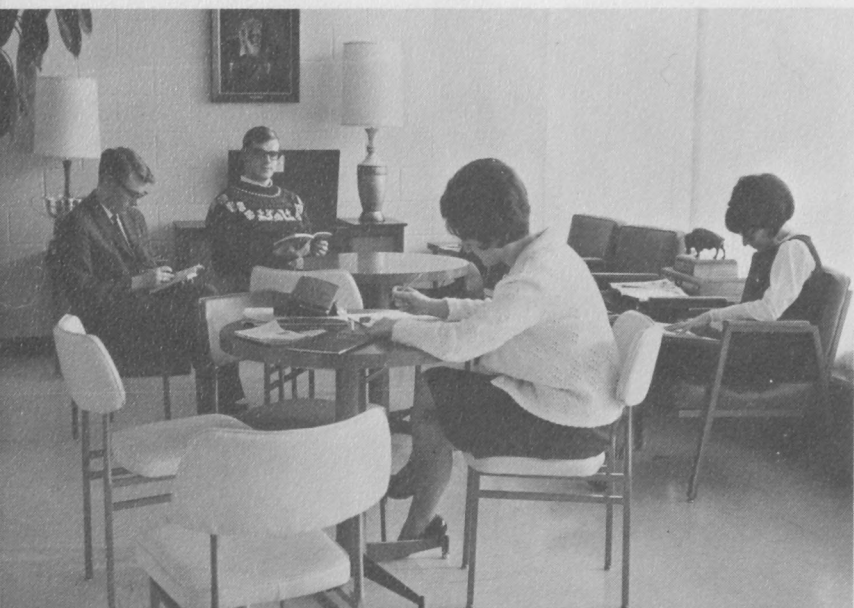

The Recreation Committee is in charge of organizing compulsory physical education, especially enjoyed by those who felt compelled to participate. Competition was supplied for the most enthusiastic, especially in football and hockey, in a schedule of games against the CMBC and WBC.

Recreation Committee: standing — Carolyn Toews, John Letkemann, Ed Wiebe, Kae Rempel. Seated — Helen Klassen, Howard Loewen, (chairman).

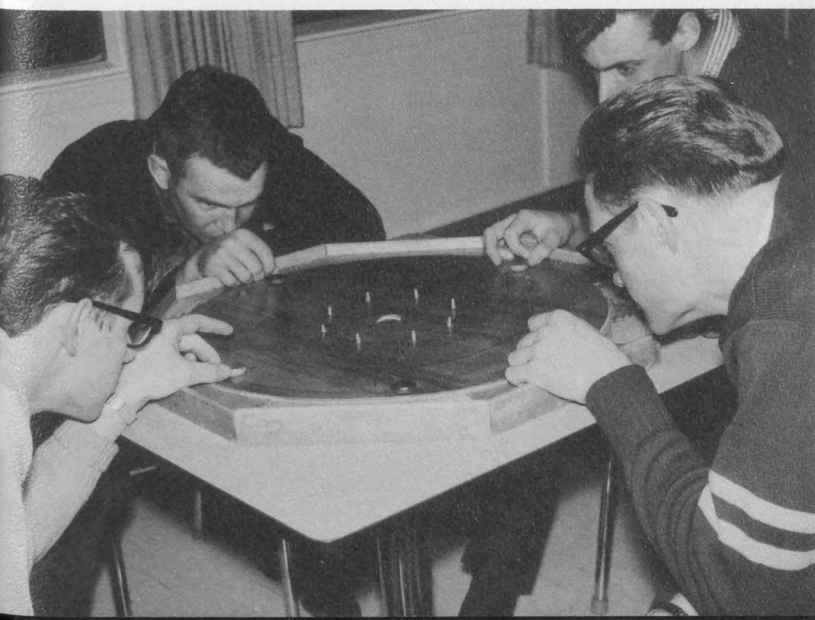

Relaxation and Conversation — definitely a part of College life. Lounge — music, the sun a bit too warm through that window, therefore sleepiness, and as a result mostly sitting around and talking.

But sometimes a point is made — even in knipps-brat — a degree course.

Yearbook Committee: standing — Gerald Plett, (advertising), Victor Loewen, (copy editor), Arnie Neufeld, (photography). Seated — Eliesebeth Friesen, (editor), Irene Braun, (secretary), Norm Neufeld, (assistant editor).

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all our sponsors and patrons for their gratifying support in making this yearbook a success.
